

Texas state's history and interesting facts

Every year on March 2 in one of the largest North American States held a big celebration after all, this spring day in 1836, Texas officially separated from Mexico and became an independent state. Then for almost a decade, the young Republic retains sovereignty, and only in 1845 Texas became US citizens. Texas has an area three times higher than the United Kingdom and occupies 74% of the entire United States and to the accession of Alaska and its share had reached 88%. If Texas once again became a separate state it would rank about 40th place in the ranking of the largest mill just behind Chile and Zambia and yet more than any European country. By population, Texas also gives odds to all States except California and immediately followed by New York. According to the 2010 census, there live more than 25 million while in 1990 the people here were a lot less about 17 million. Additionally, Houston, the biggest local city is the fourth largest place in the country. The name of the state is derived from the word Tejas that adverbs Indians hasinai means Ally or Friend. By the way, friendship is the official slogan is the motto of this land. Unfortunately, all the Texas Indians including hasinai were brutally exterminated during the colonization. Even in English, Texas is a direct anagram of Taxes. Is Texas like all other States their own nickname the Lone Star State that symbolizes the struggle for freedom from Mexican rule and trying to build separate from the US state. The flag of the state respectively referred to as the flag of the Lone Star and its constituents are red, white, and blue colors symbolize bravery, liberty, and loyalty, respectively. Lived in years 1793-1836 Stephen Fuller Austin is considered the founder of the white Texas as with the father assisted in relocating to these places for the first three hundred families of white settlers. Popular in the state of expression of Six Flags over Texas due to the fact that in different periods of the province was part of a half-dozen countries. From 1519-1821, was flying the Spanish flag next from 1685 to 1690, it was the flag of France, the third flag was the Mexican flag here from 1821 to 1836 it was replaced by the national flag of the Republic of Texas until 1845 and only a fifth had become familiar to all stars USA flag that flies in Texas from 1845 to the present day. However, in a brief period of secession of 1861-1865 when 11 southern States seceded from the United States in Texas, the waving of the Confederate flag which was the sixth banner of this extraordinary state. In addition to the flag of Texas, there are other characters such as number of animals officially recognized as such Armadillo or Armadillo and all of the diversity of the local flora, this honor was awarded.

Link to article: Texas state's history and interesting facts